- Either receive all of your order one shipment, when all the products ordered will be available.

In the case you cancel your order, the Fragonard Perfume will reimburse you the paid amount within 14 days since the reception of the annulation notice for the whole or a part of your command.

7. Warranties

- Right of withdrawal

In accordance with the provisions of Article L.121-21-8 of the French Consumer Code, in case the product does not suit your, is defective or does not correspond to your order, Fragonard VAD offers you a withdrawal period of 20 days starting from the reception of your parcel. Attention is recalled to the fact that the law guarantees only a period of 14 days from the day after receipt of the order.

The withdrawal period shall expire 20 days after the day you, or a third party indicated by you (excluding the carrier), came in to possession of the good. Where the period expires on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday, it shall be extended until the next working day.

To exercise this right, you must within 20 days above mentioned, notify us your decision to withdraw from this contract through an unequivocal statement (eg letter sent by post or email). You can also use the withdrawal form template, but it is not mandatory by writing to:

Fragonard Parfumeur
BP 34240
06131 Grasse Cedex 1
France

or at the following email address: sav@fragonard.com

In order to comply with the withdrawal period, you only need to send your communication stating you wish to exercise the right of withdrawal before the expiration of the withdrawal period.

If you withdraw from this contract, the Fragonard Perfume will reimburse you, without undue delay. The amount corresponding to the product described in the withdrawal, including delivery costs if the full order (products and gifts) are sent back (excluding additional costs arising from the fact that you have chosen, if necessary, a type of delivery other than the least expensive type of standard delivery offered by the Fragonard Perfume) and, in any event, no later than fourteen (14) days from the day we were informed unequivocally informed by written of your desire to withdraw from this contract. The return costs that you pay.

You will need to return the cancelled good in its packaging, in perfect condition and with all its accessories when appropriate to the following address, without undue delay and in any event, within 14 (fourteen) days after you have informed us your decision to withdraw from this contract. You comply with this deadline if you send back the goods before the expiration of the fourteen day period, at your expense and via a delivery method adapted to the following address:

Fragonard Parfumeur
After sales service
BP 34240
06131 CEDEX 1
France

You cannot exercise the right of withdrawal for orders concerning products which were unsealed after delivery and that cannot be returned for hygiene or health protection reasons (eg care products). Fragonard VAD will proceed to reimbursement using the same method of payment for the initial transaction, unless it is expressly agreed a different way; in any case the refund will not incur any fees for you.

- Legal guarantee of compliance for consumer goods

CONFORMITY - In any event, the seller will apply the provisions of the legal guarantee of goods' conformity with the contract in accordance with French legislation and standards in its sector that are currently valid, within the provisions of Article L.217-4 et seq. of the French Consumer Code.

Therefore, the client has 2 years to act after receiving an item, except for second-hand goods (display items), for which the deadline is 6 months (Article L.217-7).

The client can choose whether to have the item repaired or replaced, subject to the terms around cost set out in Article L.217-9: The client must provide proof that the defect existed during the legal guarantee period, except for second-hand items (display items), for which the period is 6 months.

Article L.217-4: "The seller must deliver an item in line with the contract and deal with conformity issues that exist on issue. They must also deal with conformity issues caused by packaging, or assembly or installation instructions where assembly or installation is their responsibility under the contract or has been undertaken on their behalf".

Article L.217-5: "the item complies with the contract:

1) If it is suitable for the habitual expected use of a similar item and, if applicable:

- if it matches the description given by the seller and has the qualities the latter has shared with the buyer in the form of a sample or model.

- if it has the qualities a buyer could legitimately expect in view of the public statements made by the seller, producer or their representative, including advertising or labelling.

2) Or if it has characteristics defined by mutual agreement between the parties or is suitable for any special use sought by the buyer, brought to the attention of the seller and accepted by the latter”.

Article L.217-9: “If there is a defect, the buyer can choose whether to have the item repaired or replaced. However, the seller cannot accept the buyer’s choice if it costs disproportionately more than the other option in light of the value of the item or the significance of the defect. In this case, the seller must proceed with the option not chosen by the buyer, unless this is impossible”.

Article L.217-12: “The right to take legal action due to a defect will lapse two years after the date the item is issued”.

HIDDEN DEFECTS - The products benefit from the legal warranty for defects provided for in Articles 1641 to 1649 of the French Civil Code, which is limited to 5 years after purchase. In this case, the client can choose to return the item for a full refund or keep the item for a partial refund in accordance with Article 1644 of the French Civil Code.

Article 1641: “The seller is responsible for any hidden defects in the item sold that make it unfit for its intended purpose or limit its use to such a degree that the buyer would not have acquired it, or would have paid less for it, if they had known about them”.

Article 1644: “The buyer can choose to return the item for a full refund or keep the item for a partial refund”.

Article 1648-1: “Legal action based on a latent defect must be brought by the purchaser within two years of the defect being discovered”.

Arrangements to implement safeguards

All claims or exchange or refund requests must be made by e-mail to: sav@fragonard.com

The products must be returned to Fragonard VAD in the same condition in which the Customer received them with all elements (packaging, instructions, accessories, etc.). Delivery costs shall be reimbursed to the Customer based on the invoiced rate (except in the event of a partial return of the order, in which case the delivery costs shall remain at the Customer’s expense), no later than 14 (fourteen) days following receipt by Fragonard VAD of the returned merchandise, and return costs shall be reimbursed upon presentation of supporting documents.

8. Liability

Fragonard perfume recalls that minors are unable to contract. Orders for minors must be confirmed by parental authority.

Fragonard VAD invites you to reject any package that is damaged and notify our Customer Service Department by writing your reserves within three days, and to make sure to preserve an evidence of your writing. Otherwise, the Fragonard Perfume considers that you have received the products in a state giving you full satisfaction.

9. Your personal data

We undertake to protect your privacy when you use our website and keep your personal information confidential.

See our Privacy Policy for more details about how we use your personal data.

In accordance with Article L.223.2 of the French Consumer Code, you can exercise your right to sign up on the <http://www.bloctel.gouv.fr> website to prevent cold calls.

10. Applicable law and dispute settlement

These Terms and Conditions are subject to change at any time. The new terms and conditions will apply only to sales made after the change.

All sales via our website and these Terms and Conditions of Sale are governed by French legislation, particularly the Consumer Code.

If a dispute between Fragonard VAD and a buyer cannot be resolved by our customer services team and in accordance with Article L.612-1 of the Consumer Code, you can contact the free CMAP mediation service by email (consommation@cmap.fr) or post (CMAP - Service Médiation de la Consommation, 39 avenue Franklin Roosevelt, 75008 Paris, France).

Any issue or dispute regarding an order and/or these Terms and Conditions of Sale not settled by the mediation service will go before the exclusive jurisdiction of the French courts.
